M.A. (Economics)

Total 467 candidates applied for M.A. (Economics) programme. Out of which 149 candidates appeared online and 02 offline for the Entrance Examination 2020. The result of Entrance examination 2020 of M.A. (Economics) programme for (2020-2022 batch) is prepared rank wise.

The BEE approved the result of M.A. (Economics) that provisionally approved by the Internal Committee in its meeting held on 17/08/2020.

The details of the result are given in the table and rank/merit list as (Annexure-I)

M.Sc. programmes

Total 1290 candidates applied for four M.Sc. programmes from all over India. Out of which 1063 candidates appeared online and 05 offline for the Entrance Examination 2020. The result of Entrance examination 2020 of all M.Sc. programmes for (2020-2022 batch) is prepared rank wise and preference-wise. The Institute also received three applications under foreign nationals category.

After the discussion and analysis of the results, the BEE unanimously approved the Entrance Exam Result 2020 of M.Sc. Programmes and three admission under foreign national category.

The details of the results are given in table and rank/merit list as (Annexure-II)

- (i) The BEE resolved that the Admission Committees of M.A. (Economics) and M.Sc. programmes are permitted to admit up to 60 students in M.A. (Economics), and 60 students in each M.Sc. Programme for 2020-21 academic year considering possibility of a large number of admission cancellation in future.
- (ii) The BEE considered the problem of the same marks that candidates scored in the entrance exam 2020. It is resolved that in case of tie-up of marks and rankings, the final ranking to be considered on the basis of the year of birth, then month and date, if a large number of candidates scored the same mark.

Explanation: Preference in the admission is to be given to the students who are born earlier and elder among the competing candidates.

- (iii) The BEE discussed the tie up of marks issue. The members suggested that if few students get same mark, then the institute may consider the issue accordingly. In this case, the Director will take appropriate decision to increase seats over and above 40 seats, if it is needed so.

3. Creation of Duplicate Exam link by the candidate:

The BEE discussed the issue that came to know before conducting the final entrance examination that someone created a Duplicate Exam link and sent it to his/her group members. After receiving complaints from some candidates about Duplicate Exam link that they received, a candidate accepted his mistake and explained to Dr Anurag Asawa (M.Sc. Entrance Group). Dr Anurag Asawa showed the message received from the candidate to members of the BEE, mentioning the regret and apology for the mistake.

The BEE approved his / her name for inclusion in the final entrance result list of the M.Sc. Entrance Exam 2021, without affecting his / her score in the entrance examination.

4. Cheating Cases /Malpractices Issues:

The BEE discussed Cheating Cases/Malpractices that likely happened and did in the Entrance Exam. The BEE decided to take action against such candidates who indulged in the Entrance Exam after receiving reports from supervisors/IT Sections. The BEE decided to deduct 10 marks from the total obtained marks in the Entrance Exam if found any unfair means during Exams.

The Controller of Examination presented summary data on total applications received, and the actual candidates appeared for M.Sc./M.A./ B.Sc. Entrance Examinations 2021 as follows:

M.Sc. Programmes Entrance Result
